Man shot walking home from park

A man was hospitalized Saturday night after being shot as he walked home from an Eastside basketball court.

The victim was shot in the intersection of East 36th and North Oxford streets about 8:45 p.m., according to an Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department report.

The wounded man told investigators he was walking home from the basketball courts at Washington Park when a dark sedan drove past him. Someone inside the car fired at the man four times, the report states. At IU Health Methodist Hospital, the victim told police that he did not know the shooter and was unsure why he shot at him, the report states.

Food delivery ends in armed robbery

A Chinese food delivery driver was robbed at gunpoint late Saturday on the Far Northside.

A driver for China Kitchen was called to deliver food at a home in the 2100 block of West 76th Street around 9:40 p.m.

But when he arrived, the person inside refused to open the door and stated that they did not order any Chinese food, according to a report from the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department.

The driver began walking back to his car to verify the address when two men armed with handguns approached him, the report states.

The robbers took $300, a cellphone and the food from the delivery driver, the report states.

Girl, 12, dies after van hits her bike

ANDERSON — A 12-year-old Anderson girl who was struck by a van while riding her bike with her father has died.

Suncerria Uditsky died of her injuries early Saturday at Riley Hospital for Children at IU Health in Indianapolis. Madison County Sheriff Ron Richardson said the girl was struck by the van about 8:40 p.m. Friday.

The driver told police he looked at a sign on the roadside and when he looked back he was almost on top of the riders. He said he swerved and missed the father but hit the back of the girl's bike. Richardson said the girl hit the front of the van before falling to the ground.
